III. General professional experience:

I am a member of the firm of Jaspan Schlesinger Hoffman LLP and head the Bankruptcy Department. Since 1993, I have been engaged in the private practice of law and have represented debtors, creditors, trustee and purchasers of assets in bankruptcy cases under Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 and out of court work-outs. Prior to joining the firm, I served as United States Trustee for New York, Connecticut and Vermont from 1985-1993. I joined the United States Trustee Program in 1979 and was promoted to First Assistant United States Trustee in 1982. I also served as the United States Trustee for New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware from 1989-1990.

IV. General pertinent experience:

During my tenure as a United States Trustee, I was called upon by the parties in interest in Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 cases to mediate disputes relating to, among other things, plan formulation, claims, fee applications and appointments of trustees and examiners. This process occurred on numerous occasions in large, medium and small cases during my thirteen years with the Justice Department. Almost all of these disputes were resolved expeditiously without the need for protracted litigation.

V. Mediation training:

In April 1993, I attended a three hour program sponsored by the American Arbitration Association dealing with arbitration/mediation in bankruptcy cases and proceedings.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have specialized in bankruptcy law since 1979. I have represented debtors, creditors, trustees and purchasers of assets in bankruptcy cases under Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 and out of court work-outs. I have represented clients in both publicly held and privately held companies. While United States Trustee, I was involved in many of the largest and most complex bankruptcy cases filed in the country. I also served on the United States Trustee's Advisory Committee, Chapter. 11 and Chapter 7 Subcommittee's. I assisted in the development of national policy for the Justice Department in the Chapter 7 and 11 areas and assisted in the drafting of the Chapter 7 Trustee's Handbook, used by all trustees nationally.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Prior to joining the Justice Department I was employed by Arthur Andersen & Co. in their Tax Department. This experience served to supplement my accounting and financial background.
